

Associate Executive Director of Youth Development & Education

Position Summary:

The Wood River Community YMCA is a regional leader in youth development focused on academic support and social emotional learning that meets national child safety standards. Located at the base of Sun Valley Ski & Summer Resort, our Y serves a diverse population. Our community attracts thought leaders, Olympians, world-class musicians, artists, and dancers. It is also home to many lower income families working in the service economy. The Y is committed to helping young learners achieve benchmarks for high school graduation and helping low-income families access post secondary education in a community where many families speak English as a second language. Sun Valley is among the most beautiful natural places in the world, with access to endless trails, skiing, hiking, fishing, art, culture, and so much more.

The Associate Executive Director of Youth Development & Education is responsible for all aspects of youth development, including recruitment of new participants and staff, retention, curriculum, education partnerships, and outcomes. The director develops and implements effective procedures and implements all board policies. The director develops strategies to achieve strategic goals. Additionally, this position leads a culture of excellence and plays a key role in advancing the Y mission and cause within the staff culture and the community. The Director also builds the community's understanding of the Y's cause and impact.
